

Graduate Scholarship Application Form (AA/FIN/105)

This form is not valid unless a fully completed graduate admission application file is submitted to the Admissions Office before the set deadline.

Scholarships are offered to Moroccan students with high academic profile based on their superior rating at the admission interview, school recommendation and post-Baccalaureate academic grades. A few scholarships may be offered to international graduate candidates admitted to any graduate program at the School of Humanities and Social Sciences. If you think you are eligible for a scholarship, please complete this form and return it to the Financial Aid Office before the set deadline.

Scholarship Eligibility Criteria for Graduate Students:

Scholarships are offered to graduate students with an excellent academic profile based on the following:

- High post-bac academic results and recommendation of the school's graduate committee with a distinction of at least "Bien" in the "Licence" or equivalent for the French system or a CGPA of 3.50/4.00 for applicants with an American type-degree
- Superior rating at the scholarship and admission interview (where applicable)
- Significant Extracurricular Activities

A combination of these elements is used to evaluate scholarship applicants and determine the type of scholarship to be given. Scholarships vary between 15% of tuition (almost 4 770 MAD) to 60% tuition (almost 19 080 MAD) per semester.
